

Dear everyone,

Thanks for having faith in me.
It had been a long journey, no doubt. The words you wrote to me was really something different.
Thanks for your time also in lending a hand. Thanks for giving me a chance to prove myself. A second chance. To be honest, I never asked for help, this is way too much for myself to handle. For the first time, not sure how to go about, but this is me asking for help To fight an ~~old~~ unknown system. Thanks again for your time in writing encouraging comments to me. It makes me more determined. Also for the negative comments. That for taking the time and letting your thoughts and feelings known.

Yours truly,

Ton Duc Thanh
Nguyen.
