Aims of Shedspace

- To give young people a safe place to engage in worthwhile activities that promote mental health and wellbeing, and a sense of purpose
- To give young people the opportunity to experience hands on activities which may then lead to further education and training in the building or construction industry
- To give young people to opportunity to access professionals from the industry through mentoring and teaching at Shedspace
- To give interested artists, builders and registered tradespeople the opportunity to apply to become a mentor through the Shedspace program
- To give youth work and education students a platform for supervised work placement which is a requirement for their course
